SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES FOR NATIONAL PERIODONTIST DAY CELEBRATION

To commemorate the registration of the Indian Society of Periodontology under the state laws as a nonprofit front organization formed in 1975 with the primary aim of promoting and enhancing the knowledge and science of Periodontology in India, it has been decided to celebrate 23rd February, as the National Periodontist Day.

National Periodontist Day should be celebrated in a meaningful manner. Posters, pamphlets, banners, newspaper articles, television and other mass media can be used for this purpose. Road shows, street plays and dental checkup camps and any other activity at the community or institute level such as mass scale brushing drives in order to promote the message of "Healthy Gums – Healthy Body" can be carried out.

Contests by Dental Colleges and ISP Study Groups could also include under graduate students, interns and patient quiz, Nukkad natak, Video reels, slogan writing, smile contest, drawing etc. emphasizing the science of Periodontology and the role of a Periodontist as the custodian of Oral and Gum Care.

Kindly send the detailed report with relevant photographs/ video and other printed matters to the head office (CC of digital reports to be sent to Dr. Roshani Thakur, email-id- roshanithakur15@gmail.com) by 15th March 2023.

REPORT

DEPARTMENT OF PERIODONTOLOGY

Department of Periodontology, Saraswati Dental College & Hospital, Lucknow celebrated National Periodontist's Day on 23rd February 2023, with great fanfare. The preparation for the event started on 17th February, 2023, with the dissemination of information among the students about the ONLINE SMILE CONTEST, for which the entries were entertained till 20th February, 2023, via Google forms, the winners were decided by the judges based on the online entries. The event saw the participation of 84 students from BDS 2nd year, 3rd year and Final year Batch as well as interns, among which the prizes were distributed to all the winners. The day was dedicated by the department to educate the students and patients on the importance of having a healthy and sound periodontium and its role in beautiful smile. It started with the Lamp Lightening Ceremony, followed by the lecture of Dr. Shreya V. Mishra, Senior Lecturer, Department of Orthodontics & Dento-Facial Orthopaedics, on SMILE-ESTHETICS, accompanied with cheerful and gracious words, by Dr. Vivek Bains, Professor & Head, Department of Periodontology. The Master of Ceremony was Dr. Chetan Chandra, Professor, Department of Periodontology, and all undergraduates, post-graduates and interns, demonstrated Brushing Techniques to the Non-Clinical Staff and to the patients, and spread awareness among them. The event ended with encouraging words of principal, Dr. K.N. Dubey.
